

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Letter from Miss Mabel G. Hubbard to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. (1877?) My dear Alec:

I have good news (I hope) for you. Yesterday Prof. Horsford told me he had been around to ever so many Profs. and they were all going to meet you, and see your experiments at Prof. Trowbridge's, a week from today — Tuesday at one o'clock.

Also Cousin Sam came in the evening and said there is to be a meeting of the Academy at the time he thought, and the essays would be published in three weeks afterwards, but the papers must be all written out and ready for publication the day they are delivered. So you have some more work, you poor fellow.

Be sure you come out tonight if you feel able to and bring me something to do.

In haste, Mabel. (Tuesday morning)
